BOLIVAR, TENN., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1881. VOL. XVII. NO. 17.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

cide in Marietta, Ohio, the other day because a pretty servant girl would not accept his suit. Is this the result of American training on the Mongolian mind?

one a widower of nineteen, and the weeks of homesick longing that had other a widow of eighteen, were mar- dragged their weary length out over ried at the office of the Alabama Great Southern Road, at Chattanooga longer have you to stay?" on Monday.

The Gainsville, Green county, (Ark.) Press says: "All is life and work on suppressed emotion. the railroads in this county. Two claimed. How did this happen?" and dirt and timber flying in every direction. Parties are coming into found a cheap bearding house, and buy farms. Mill men along the Iron drinking saloon. For the first time in Mountain road complain of a lack of cars by which to ship their lumber.

The mail carrier, Geo. McCutcheon, who was arrested for robbing the view of his reputable family connections and tender years, was sentenced to one year and six months' impris- I was holding the cold trembling onment. He carried the mail from hand that had crept into mine. He Rally Hill, Boone county, to Dover, earnestly tightened his grasp as im-Pope county, and by means of a duplicate key obtained access to the favor of you pouch and abstracted the registered At once I expected he was going to by his relatives.

disease has invaded nearly every fam- my thought, he said, "I am not going ily in the place. The Louisville Com-the family are down at once, in another family two, in a third three, and so on. The people there mostly make they have suffered has taken all the money they had. Their cases certainly demand at ention.

Tweed dying in jail, Sweeney in exile, Connolly forced to fly, Genet in prison, Garvey made to wear stripes, and Ingersoll, Keyser and the rest prosecuted to conviction, while all or them were forced to disgorge, make a chapter of Mr. Tilden's prosecution of municipal robbers to be put in contrast with the escape of the Republican Star Route plunderers. The two facts explain the policy of each party toward its own rascals. Democracy destroys its speculators. Republicanism makes its Cabinets and its courts the factors in a conspiracy to acquit them.—Albany Argus.

The alliance of the administration with repudiation in Virginia and Tennessee, and Greenbackism in Missis-Republicans in Congress with added and offensive burdens. To carry Mahone and his Congressmen, and Hyatt Smith and his Congressmen. Let them drink their fill of such alliances and pay all the penalties of them. Let the Democratic minority be content to use its really great power within party lines for the party's good, and leave the speakership alone. - Utica Observer.

One of the mysteries of life, and one which we have never been able to solve, is how temperance men can fail What could be have done to deserve in being in favor of prohibition. You this punishment. You may talk with them on the subject, and you will not find one in twenty but you say it was committed while that he will say he is not in favor of under the influence of drink. temperance by voting the Republican | ing for him. ourselves. Too long already have we | ruin of the grog-shop? relied on smooth tongued promises only to be deceived. We must now rely on ourselves.

A Prison Incident.

referring to the relation of intemper-

"I have been in this prison two great army is in motion; detachments But if, with these terrible facts star- that some other Americans must years, and you are the first person that are constantly filing off to the poor ing them in the face, they are so drink a great deal. At five cents a Dr. B. W. Richardson, of England has called for me, the first woman houses, prison, the scaffold, the drunk- greedy for their gains as to persevere glass this beer manufacture of 1880 "the foremost physiologist of the age," that has spoken to me."

all in Texas. My mother is ance!-Monitor.

an invalid, and fearing that the knowledge of my terrible fall would A CHINESE student committed sui- kill her, I have kept my whereabouts a profound secret. For two years I have borne my awful homesickness > in silence for her sake." AS HE BURLED HIS FACE in his hands and heart-sick sobs lanta Convention. burst from his trembling frame, it seemed to me that I could see a pano-A young couple from Valley Head, rama of the days and nights, the long two years.

> "Three years!" was the reply, as the fair young head drooped lower, and the frail little hands trembled with "Five years at your age! I exrailroads are being built along the "Well," he replied, "it's a long story from home to try to do something for the 13th of October. myself. Coming to Leavenworth, I Greene county almost daily looking one night accepted an invitation from for land and most all who come here some of the young men to go into a my life I drank a glass of liquor. It > remembrance of a quarrel. SOMEBODY WAS STABBED.

The bloody knife was found in my hand. I was indicted for assault with mail, pleaded guilty in the United intent to kill. Five years for the stroyed by fire last Sunday morning. Loss, tary, and that he also managed to States Court at Fort Smith, and in thoughtless acceptance of a glass of $50,000, insurance, $37,000. Origin of fire liquor is surely illustrating the Scrip- unknown. ture truth that "the way of the transgressor is hard !"

ploringly he said: "Oh! Mrs. Molloy, I want to ask a letters. It is understool the amount ask me to help obtain a pardon, and entirely stopped, and $500,000 will be diof his peculations will be made good in an instant I measured the weight verted into other channels. of public reproach that rested upon | One thousand tenants in Roscommon rethe victims of its legalized drink traf- fuse to pay rent. fic. It is all right to legalize a man SHIPPINGPORT, Kentucky, is at prest to craze the brains of our boys, but ent suffering all the horrors of an epi- not by any means wise to ask that the demic of typhoid fever. The dreadfu | State pardon its victim. Interpreting to ask you to get me a pardon, but I mercial quotes Dr. W. B. Doherty as get a letter from her and send it to sheep to death, authority for the statement which fol- me. Don't for the world fell her All suspects in Kilmainham jail have where I am. Better not tell her any- commenced subsisting on prison fare. In one house the Doctor says five of her so I can look upon it. Oh! I am so homesick for my mother." The head of the boy dropped down of my own boy, and for a few mo- trade was growing in New York, ments was silent, and let the outburst of sorrow have vent.

Presently I said: "Murray, if I thousand prisons were upon you, still you would be my boy. I should friendly. want to know where you were. Is it | The survivors of the Calf Rock lightright to KERP THAT MOTHER IN SUSPENSE? Do you suppose there has ever been a day or night that she has not prayed hearty feeling which pervaded America to for her wandering boy? No, Murray, I will only consent to write to your mother on consideration that you will permit me to write the whole truth, just as one mother can write it to auother." After some argument his Great Britain. He recommended the be fond and proud of a very old man consent was finally obtained, a letter farmers to go there. was hastily penned and sent on its way. A week or so clapsed, when the following letter was received from

Texas: DEAR SISTER IN CHRIST: Your letmeasures, they must have the help of | two years. When Murray left home alike. They must be his servile slaves | * * * As the months have rolled in return. All right. Let them have on the family have given him up as dead, but I felt sure God would give me back my boy. As I write from the couch of an invalid-my husband is in W-nursing another son, who is lying at the gates of death with tvphoid fever. I could not wait his return to write to Murray. I wrote and told him, if I could, how quickly I upon my breast, just as I did when he was a little child. My poor dear boy -so generous, so kind, and loving.

DO DOT MENTION HIS CRIME,

it, and yet when it comes to the ballot- I did not know he even tasted liquor. us. Upon Saturdays, on rainy days box you will only find about one in We have raised six boys, and I have and public days, our streets are filled The Secretary of the Treasury occutwenty that will vote for it. Now never known one of them to be un- and our sidewalks obstructed by pies the exceedingly comfortable powhy is this? What right has a tem- der the influence of drink. Oh! is crowds of drunken blackguards who sition of having more money than he perance man to go and vote against there no place in this Nation that is use the most profane and obscene can spend or invest. The result is his principles and convictions. Temhis principles and convictions are frehis principles and convictions. Temhis principles and convictions are frehis principles and convictions. Temhis principles and convictions are frehis principles and convictions are frehis principles and convictions. Temhis principles and convictions are frehis principles are fre perance men, get down off the fence fold? O God! my sorrow is greater quent. In short, on such days our in the Treasury vaults and that a large and be men! Be true to the princi- than I can bear. I cannot go to him, town is turned into a perfect pande- number of people in different parts of ples you profess to believe in. What but, sister, I pray you to talk to him monium. During the past week, beif your party is the weaker one now, and comfort him, as you would have sides other mischiet, the drinking frame of mind. A balance on the you should not desert it. The Re- some mother talk to your boy were he houses have been the means of send- Treasury books makes the average Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow!" the trying situation in which he finds publican party did not come into in his place. Tell him that when he is ing one of our citizens into eternity Congressman shudder and drives the power in a day, or in a year. If you released his place in the old-home who died in a fit of mania potu. An- patriots of the lobby to the verge of inthink you are helping the cause of nest and in the mother's heart is wait- other one crazed with drink is said to sanity. These gentlemen, of course,

Look on this Picture. Mrs. Emma Molloy relates the folland one hundred and twenty miles into drunkards and gamblers. In fact, spilt by the drunken assassin. This they will give up the unholy traffic. less protracted intervals, it is evident

NEWS OF THE WEEK, Summary of the Most Important Events DOMESTIC.

The New England Cotton Manufacturers'

June 29, 1882.

So I ventured to ask-"How much | were burned to-day. Loss, $30,000; insur-

5,340,000 cents. Michael and David Hennessy have been crime. indicted for the murder of Thomas Devcrossed Red river at the mouth of Little sequences be what they may. Wichita, in Clay county, into Oclahoma unmolested Sunday last. C. H. Rockwell, of New York, astronofired my brain. There is a confused | mer, returned from Honolulu by Monday's steamer. He reports the successful observation of the transit of Mercury.

> While several boys were skating on a pond at Leominster, Mass., one of them, named Walker, aged twelve years, broke through the ice, The father of the boy, Arthur Walker, went to his son's assistance, and both were drowned, FOREIGN.

Three cows belonging to a rent-paying farmer near Fearns, county Cork, were found ripped open.

borers on his estate because he was unable of $7500, a mere trifle to a country con-

Liverpool, were burned on the 30th. into my lap with a wailing sob. I liament for Bristol, addressing his consti- work of Mr. W. Paul Brown, and it their living by fishing, and none of. laid my hand upon his head. I thought tuents, said a strong feeling in favor of free may partly explain the ex-Secretary's It plays in its glee with every one

Senor Vicuna, Secretary of the Chilian Legation at Paris, writes, stating that the were your mother, and the odor of a States have not for a moment ceased to be relations between Chili and the United house disaster are still upon the rock, Samuel Mastry, in his London speech, said that he could bear testimony to the ward England. If anybody, he said, should go, as he did, into the Western States, they would see the attractions they offered for certain classes of the surplus population of is very strong in women, and she may

A Warning Voice.

An extract from a funeral oration can we say, what can we think? In delivered by the Rev. J. B. Carne, such a union there can be neither dig- Dealing in shame for a morsel or bread; pastor of the Presbyterian Church in nity nor beauty. The man's motive | Hating the living and fearing the dead; Covington, Tenn,, on the death of is usually a mercenary one, and the Merciul God, have I fallen so low! fectually of both stains, and loads the ten to thank you for your words of the loads the ten to thank you for your words of the loads th tender sympathy and for tidings of my that place the 19th of November, by gyman who performs the marriage cerboy—the first word we have had in Jas. A Slaughter. Let the people emony knows that at the altar; the With an eye like a crystal, a heart like its heed the warning voice and let them friends who go to church to see them Mahone in the Senate and House we thought it would not be for long. see to it that this unholy business married feel it acutely. The congratmust not continue among them : "There is another point to which I where an old woman's lingering beau-

of this sad death. It requires but lit- the lookers-on can feel nothing but | The veriest wretch that goes shivering ! tle thought or reason to trace this sorrow-the infatuation must be so Will make a wide sweep lest I wander to back to whisky drinking, not that our brief, the rebound so terrible. Man's For all that is on or about me I know, that the drunkenness of others furn- when youth and beauty rivet it! A ished the occasion for his murder. wife has often so much to suffer, even Upon this subject I will use plain lan- when she has chosen wisely! The conwould go and pillow his dear head guage. In saying what I shall I have tempt one cannot help feeling for the one. Among the saloon keepers I scorn one must cherish for the man have personal friends-men whom I who sells himself for a fortune, are like in many respects. But the time scarcely so strong as the pity that feel it my duty to speak out regardless even ordinary contentment an utter of personal considerations. We all impossibility. see what the liquor traffic is doing for have threatened the lives of his wife never dream of such a thing as the re-A sufficient quantity of liquor is under the paternal roof and out of the their own way, patriotically relieve passion is innate. used in the United States to fill a ca- family circle, and from faithful and Mr. Folger from whatever embarrassnal four feet deep, fourteen feet wide, obedient sons it is transforming them | ment he may feel in this respect.

laws defied and trampled under foot. with their face to the foe .- Ex.

You see our town overrun by the most lawless and abandoned characters. You see our women and children turned into widows and orphans. You see our good citizens murdered upon our streets. I Association appointed delegates to the At- abiding citizens to see that, if this un-Yale accepts Harvard's challenge to an at least kept under legal restrictions. of winter, there died at the Commer- of alcohol along with a whole series of eight-oared race, provided it be rowed I appeal to you in the name of law cial Hospital, Cincinnati, a young chemical bodies, and to investigate 000 halt eagles, 1,000,000 silver dollars, and my God to arise in you might and Once the pride of respectable into it? The reply came invariably

Another Rod in Pickle for John Sher-

The Sunday Gazette, which has been publishing a series of articles in cast the form of interviews, adds to its recent charges that Government work-The hardware establishment of Bollary & men were employed upon Mr. Sher-Co., at Jefferson, Texas, was totally de- man's new house while he was Secrehave it furnished at public expense. The Gazette's informant says, referring to the house: "When it is finished the next thing requiring the attention of its Treasury Secretary owner was the furnishing. The problem to the solution of which he addressed himself was how to furnish the house without personal cost. Supervising Architect Hill and the Treasury De-In a few days, hunting in Ireland will be | partment Contingent fund constituted his conclusion. Hitl detailed an employe of his office to go to New York City and select the furniture Sherman desired, and it was paid for out of the contingent fund of the Treasury De- her whose "Beautiful Snow" will long partment. The money so illegally be regarded as one of the brightest disbursed was charged to the pur- gems in American literature. hase of furniture for public buildings. Lord Donvale has discharged all the la- The amount was in the neighborhood witness to this can be produced."

Disparity in Ages.

girl does not do a wise thing, and his bride risks her happiness and often loses it. But there is a certain beauty in the admiring protection of the busband, and, whatever the disappoint-she keeps her own secret. Her rowho retains his faculties and his emotions, and loves her well. But of the

Too Much Money.

The old man who marries a young want you to write to my mother and to discover who battered an entire flock of taining so many taxpayers as does Over the heads of the people you meet; the United States. I purposely withhold the more minute details of this Flying to kiss a tair lady's check little operation at the country's expense in order to draw out the expresent Supervising | Pure as an angel, gentle as love Architect, This matter should seem Samuel Marley, Liberal member of Par- to them as worthy of denial as the Ol the snow, the beautiful snow,

Whirling about in maddening fun, anxiety to have the fast approaching Senate investigation gc so far back And the dogs with a bark and a bound into the past of Treasury Department contingent fund disbursements. A

> How wild the crowd goes swaying along, Hailing each other with humor and song How the gay sleighs like meteors flash is Bright for a moment, then lost to the eye Ringing-swinging-dashing they go, deceased friend was guilty of this, but love is often so light a thing, even There is nothing as pure as the beautiful SHOW.

> brain. If fainting-freezing-dying alone

> Helpless and foul as the trampled snow, inner, despair not! Christ stoopeth low

To rescue the soul that is lost in sin, And raise it to life and enjoyment again.

Flowers in Mexico.

During even the coldest days that are known in this mild climate, one may go to market and find the simple lowing incident in one of her speeches long. The liquor saloons in New it is simply turning our town into a The increased consumption of malt Indians seated on the side walks with York alone, placed in opposite rows, perfect pandemonium. Now these liquors in the United States has been their baskets of flowers. I have seen length; while those of the United be that whisky dealers have never "During 1880," says the Retailer the whole blocks, offering at almost ridicyears of age, on the front seat, intent- icide every mile and a thousand fu- cannot help seeing them; when they man and child in the country. Leav- five cents one may nearly always buy ly eyeing me. The look he gave was nerals a day. If all the drunkards realize that for their triffing gains ingout the females and the children, a large, elegantly arranged bouquet, so full of earnest longing, it spoke vol- were drawn up in battle array in two they are breaking the hearts and this vast quantity represented 600 composed of the most exquisite flowumes to me. At the close of the ser- ranks, they would form a line two blighting the lives of our mothers and glasses a year for each male over ers, the price of which, in New York, houses, prison, the scaffold, the drunk-ard's graveyard, and these places are in their business regardless of conse-"How is this my child?" I asked, constantly filled by recruits drawn quences, then if there be in the world capita for every man, woman and child, active and successful temperance railway, near Knoble Station, and than any other tongue. But for woman using liquor at all? Are there Have you no friends that love you? The great brown eyes, swimming with tears, were slowly uplifted to mine as he replied; the court at he camp of destruction—the of work and darker and the camp of destruction—the of work a valid deeper and darker and the court at Little of work. The following is his own were sentenced by the court at Little of works. The following is his own account of his conviction and conversion, and there are the following is his own were sentenced by the court at Little of works. The following is his own account of his conviction and conversion, and the learn works. The following is his own were sentenced by the court at Little of works. The following is his own account of his conviction and conversion, and the learn works. The following is his own account of his conviction and conversion, and the learn works. The following is his own account of his conviction and conversion, and the learn works are thought, foreign music, may please of running the United States are nervous power; they simply enterther works and the learn works. The following is his own account of his conviction and conversion, and the learn works. The following is his own account of his conviction and conversion, and the learn works are thought, foreign music, may please of running the United States are nervous power; they simply enterthe works and the learn works are thought he seem that they do not the south the seem that they do not the seem that they are the converted to the converted

BEAUTIFUL SNOW.

AN AMERICAN POEM.

BY A LADY. holy business must continue, that it is dark Saturday morning in the dead that I was asked to study the action Captain Payne and a large following it my duty to speak out, let the con- best society. But the evil hour that and its reply is, "I give no muscular proved her ruin was but the door strength.

Snow," which was immediately car- this agent than if none were taken at ried to a gentleman of culture and lit- all. I ask if, Can you build up any erary taste, who was at that time ed- of the tissues of the body?' The antor of the National Union. In the swer again is in the negative; 'I build columns of that paper, on the morning | nothing. If I do anything, I add fatty following the girl's death, the poem | matter to the body, but that is a deappeared in print for the first time, structive agent, piercing the tissues, When the paper containing the poem | destroying their powers, and making came out on Sunday morning, the them less active for their work.' Next body of the victim had not yet re- I turn around to the facts of expericeived burial. The attention of one of ence. I think, well, as I have come the first American poets was soon di- to the above conclusion, I will experected to the newly published lines, riment on myself. I do so. I gave who was so taken with their stirring up that which I thought warmed and pathos, that he immediately followed | helped me, and I can declare, after the corpse to its final resting place. Such are the plain facts concerning

Of the snow, the beautiful snow, Filling the sky and the earth below, Over the housetops, over the street, Dancing-firting-skimming along, Beautiful snow; it can do so wrong, Clinging to lips in frolicsome freak; Beautiful snow from heaven above,

How the flakes gather and laugh as they go, Chasing—laughing—hurrying by, It lights on the face and it sparkles the eye Snap at the crystals as they eddy round; The town is alive, and its heart in a glow, and every decorator or upholsterer Over the crust of the beautiful snow; Snow so pure when it falls from the sky,

To be trampled in mud by the crowd pas ment may be, in nine cases out of ten To be trampled and tracked by thousands ings are frescoed and painted in the ulations are hollow and forced. Even Flattered and sought for the charms of call your attention, that is to the cause | ty has temporarily captivated a youth, | God and myself, I have lost by my fall;

How strange it would be that this beautiful Should fall on a sinner with nowhere to ge

"Is there mercy for me? Will He heed my Mexico is the greatest flower mar- Of course he thought that some pretty ket in the world. All the year round girl would pick the most berries; but Information was received here today of the assassination of Mr. Robert Catlin, on his plantation on the Yazoo River, Friday night. Mr. Catlin's plantation is located near Huntsabout 100 miles above Yazoe City. He was one of the wealthiest men in In a recent visit to the Leavenworth, Kan., prison, during my address on Sabbath morning I observed a young boy, not more than 17 or 18

In a recent visit to the Leavenwhole blocks, offering at almost ridicthat section of the country, and thought of these things. They may organ of the brewers, "taxes were paid on 13,374,000 barrels, or 414,000,paid on 13,374,000 barrels, or 414,000,the traffic were congregated on this sults of their unboly traffic. If so,
the destance of the country, and that section of the country, and
that section of the country, and
that section of the country, and
the destance of the country, and
that section of the country, and the seemed to be universally esteemed by the paid on 13,374,000 barrels, or 414,000,the paid on 13,374,000 barrels yice I asked the Warden for an interview with him, which was readily granted. As he approached me his face grew deathly pale, and as I grasped his hand he could not restrain the fast falling tears. Choking with his pursuit of him.

history on this question, when I say November.

of alcohol except as tood. I thought it warmed us. I thought it gave additional strength. I thought it enabled us to endure mental and bodily fatigue. I thought it cheered the heart, and lifted up the mind into In the early part of the war, one greater activity. But it so happened that I, for one, had once no thought and justice; I appeal to you in the woman over whose head only two their bearing in relation to each other. The St. Clair Hub and Spoke Works, at name of murdered innocence in that and twenty summers had passed. She And so I took alcohol from my shelf five persons. Detroit, owned by Mark Hopkins & Co., coffin; I appeal to you in the name of had once been possessed of an enviable in the laboratory, as I might any other this heart-broken widow and these share of beauty; had been, as she drug or chemical there, and I asked it orphaned children [turning and point- | herself said, "flattered and sought for | in the course of experiments extend- | Paris cost $30,000. ing to Mrs. Cooper and children]; I the charms of her face;" but, alas! ing over a lengthened period, What The coinage at the Philadelphia mint appeal to you in the name of human- Upon her fair brow had long been do you do? I asked it, Do you warm during November was 383,000 eagles, 562, ity; I appeal to you in the name of written the terrible word - fallen! the animal body when you are taken arrest this tide of lawlessness and parentage, her first wrong step was I do not, except in a mere flush of I am aware that I have spoken story over again," which has been the around to it in another direction, and ridge, and everybody as busy as bees, but I'll make it short. I started out ereaux, Chief of Police at New Orleans, on plainly, but the time has certainly only life history of thousands. High- I ask it, 'Do you give muscular come for plain talk. As a minister of ly educated and accomplished in man- strength?' I test it by the most rigid God, and as a good citizen, I have felt | ners, she might have shown in the analyses and experiment I can adopt, | Princess Helene of Waldeck.

from childhood; and having spent a "I turn to its effect upon the organs | tion of industrial arts in 1882. young life in disgrace and shame, the of the body, and find that, while it A Dublin correspondent says outpoor friendless one died the me an- expedites the heart's action, it reduces rages are breakig out again, and proscholy death of a broken hearted out- tonicity, and, in the nervous system, I find the same reply; that is to say, Among her personal effects was I find the nervous system more quickfound, in manuscript, the "Beautiful ly worn out under the influence of considering the whole period in which I have subjected myself to this ordeal I never did more work; I never did more varied work; I never did work

Luxury in New York.

history.—New York Sun.

our sympathies are with Mr. Smith in land.

himself, we must insist that he marry

the woman and support the children.

Murdered by His Wife's Side.

[Vicksburg Special to the N. O. Democraf.]

The luxury and perfection of detail with equal facility—with so much fa-cility; I never did work with such a complete sense of freedom from auxiety and worry, as I have done during the necessity of moderate drinking,

To welcome the coming of beautiful snow!

mance may be dormant, but affection | Till it blends with the filth in the horrible

Once I was pure as the snow, but I fell, Fell like the snow-but from heaven to hell old woman who marries a boy, what | Fell to be scoffed, to be spit on and beat; Pleading—cursing—dreading to die, Selling my soul to whoever would buy;

Once I was fair as the beautiful snow.

which the fathers of our race passed

no wish to hurt the feelings of any- woman who barters her freedom, the How strange it should be when the light If the snow and the ice struck my desperate has come when as a minister of Jesus arises for two bound together for life Christ and as a law-loving citizen I under such circumstances as to make To be heard in the streets of the crazy town, here to compete. He kicked on the question is announced, several South-Gone mad is the joy of snow coming down). I should lie down and die in my terrible woe, With a bed and a shroud of the beautiful or Democratic ticket, you are mis- Then followed loving mother words and children with pistol in hand. duction of taxation. National econo- the gardens bring forth brilliant blos- he should have known that, while a taken. If you think either of these for Murray in addition to those writ- Then our friend who lies in that my means in their eyes national ruin. soms, the fragile, beautiful children of preity girl might start in and pick great parties are friends of temper- ten. As I wept bitter tears over the coffin was from the same cause hur- They want a broad, generous policy- this tropical zone. All historians who berries well for a day, she could not dollars. ance you have only to look at what words so full of heartbreak I asked ried into eternity through no fault of internal improvements on a vast scale; write of the Mexicans, hold out faithful to the end of the they are trying to do in Maine, Kan- myself the question, how long will his own, while still another citizen subsidies for everything from a cran- speak of their love of flowers as one cranberry season. Mr. Smith might sas and other States, to have this halthis nation continue this covenant las his hands stained with the blood berry patch to a line of steamers or a of the principal characteristics. Nor as well begin to learn the language of life in the blood berry patch to a line of steamers or a of the principal characteristics. lucination removed. No, we cannot of death, and league with hell to rob depend on others and let temperance of the innocent victim. You see that railroad across the continent. We is this trait diminished in the present distributed during the next few weeks. depend on others, and let temperance us of our boys, and yet deprive us this traffic is taking the bread and may be certain that when Congress generation. From the days before the family that he has so nobly won.— of $100,000 to the State Treasurer, the distributed during the past few weeks, may be certain that when Congress generation. From the days before the family that he has so nobly won. men stand firm for their cause and mothers of the power at the ballot-box clothing from our helpless and inno- meets next month the Treasury sur- cruel conquest, all through that mer- Milmaukee Sun. vote as they talk. We must act for to protect those boys from the legal cent children. It is making demons plus will be attended to. The gentle- ciless time, when the Mexicans bore of our men. It is making widows of men who are gathering from the the heavy yoke under the violent masour wives and orphans of our child- North and the South and the East and ters, the Spaniards, they remained ren. It is taking our children from the West will, if they are allowed faithful to their love of flowers; the would make a street eleven miles in are facts that we all know. It may over 100 per cent in the last ten years. them sitting thus closely together for a young boy, not more than 17 or 18 liquor Broadway, we would see a su- when they see these things as they about 150 mugs for every man, wo- numberless varieties. For twenty-

$1.50 FER ANNUM.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

A Quebec dispatch says Lake Beauford is frozen over. Dr. Carver has been successful in we more pigeon matches in England.

An explosion in colliery belonging to Lord Granville, near Halley, killed

The new carriage in which Mrs. John W. Mackey takes her airings in government's policy. The new Deputy Collector at Wrangel, Alaska, is breaking up the whisky smuggling at that place. A London court circular announces will organize an international exhibipects for the winter is discouraging.

tious pamphlets throughout Russia. Dr. Loring, Commissioner of Agriulture, will be temporary chairman of the New York Tariff Convention. Young Iturbide, grandson of the Miss Gafford, holder of two small farms, was found dead in bed at Wexford, Ireland, Monday. The indications point to murder.

The Secretary of the Carrick-onunder the Coercion act. The grand jury brought in an indictment against William Jones, who shot at Guiteau, charging him with assault with intent to kill. A clergyman in Canada narrowly escaped fatal poisoning through Paris | rose to his eyes. the period that I have abstained alto- green having been placed in his evengether. Let this fallacy then, as to ing meal of porridge. Want of discipline in the Agyptian and feeling. Southern genius dies in be removed.—Medical Temperance army is increasing. If energetic meas-Journal. its infancy, it perishes for want of of the Khedive will fall to pieces.

in New York dwellings is passing inyears since the town was laid out. to a proverb. Nowhere in the world, The statement is published in Lonexpended upon the furnishing and or- don that Mrs. Langtry has determin- distorted by sectional blas, they have probably, is so much time and money namenting of the homes of the rich as ed to appear on the stage, and that so long been in the habit of looking in this city. The draping of curtains she will make her debut in New York down on Southerners as their Inferihas become a distinct branch of art, next January.

has one or more employes, whose sole ation of fourteen from the thick and business is to arrange in graceful folds thin supporters of Count Taafe gives sectional bias has been greatly increasthe draperies, which are now indis- the government a majority hitherto ed since the war-conquerers always pensible, at doors, windows, and fire- never enjoyed. place. Even the banisters must now Princess Victoria, wife of the Crown | the superiors of the conquered. Neveither side with heavy fringe. Ceil-

large attendance of Ministers and dip- has a literature of her own, studios of distinguished artists, and lomatic corps was present. then transferred to the houses they are At Rome a large factory was burned Monday night. The authorities the North for her mental to embellish. Hundreds of women ands of dollars, upon embroidery and fearing that the flames would spread food. Southern writers who contriare employed, at an expense of thous-

art needlework which is to adorn the ing total darkness in the city. sumptuous places in which our rich In consideration of the exceptional- hands of Northern publishers unless men live. Paintings, statuary, carvings in stone and wood, the richest ly trying season the Duke of Sutherfabrics of French and Indian looms, land has remitted 50 per cent. of the they pander to Northern sentiment, indeed, all that is most rare and beau- current year's rent to his sheepfarming | unless they suppress Southern feeling,

tiful in nature and art, are brought to | tenants in Sutherlandshire. bear upon the decoration of these re- There is some pretty strong opposi- owes it to herself to foster the talent, publican palaces. Even the stables, in tion to giving Randall the compliwhich the horses, coachmen, and ment of the nomination for speaker grooms are to be housed, are far more among the Democrats, but the best Memphis Free Trader. luxurious than the simple homes in informed believe we will get it.

their lives. The newly finished stables ald's recent assurances of Canadian eighth street far outshine those of the local Legislature openly avows him- public to the necessity of regulating Roman Emperor whose sumptuous ap- self in favor of Canadian indepenpointments have become a matter of nence. The other night burglars laboriously drilled seven holes in a safe at Mad- | ket" to the amount of 80,000,000 bales

Notwithstanding Sir John Macdon-

George Smith, the Berlin cranberry and also that the safe had been left un- bales were raised in this country. man, who offered to marry the wo- locked. But they had the satisfaction man picking the most cranberries on of knowing they had spoiled the safe. his marsh, now wishes he had accept- A threatening split in Democratic colored girl with a great deal of indig- ern Representatives and Senators country. What shall we do about it?

is that he has got to marry an ancient | protection for cotton and iron manu-Polock widow, who has twelve chil- facturing interests. dren up to now. She picked the most A French and Arab scrobat troupe peculators will create monopolies. berries and waits for Mr. Smith to fill is performing at Constantinople, in To place the "buket-shops" in the his part of the contract, and he sits on | which there are 12 English children, | hands of government agents like the a barrel of cranberries and sighs while virtually retained as slaves and horrithe widow sits on a doorstep across bly illtreated. It is understood that pawn-brokers'-shops are in Austria, the street and corrals her children, Lord Granville has ordered the Conwaiting for the cranberry step-father sul General to recover possession of in the crime. to come and claim his own. While the children and forward them to Eng-

> In 1878 silver dollars were struck and issued on which the eagle had seven tail feathers. The die was bro- gitimate trade of the country. But ken and a new one was made, and by what must we do .- Memphis Free mere accident the eagle on the new | Trader. one contained eight tail feathers. The latter are of no more use than other The State authorities of Indiana nooga with 1,500 German carp for dis-

same as commercial insurance compa. but applications for more are coming nics. This will come very hard on from all sections. the Royal Arcanum, Knights of Honor and other secret benevolent bodies. The Naval Advisory Board, about than that one should use brandy or whose report on the condition of the other liquors to purify the blood, to navy and the means of improving aid digestion, or to build up the sysit much has been said, has been re- tem. Since it has been proven by sei-ranks not hitherto know to exist.

The Literature of the South.

committed about II o'clock Friday night—the assassin firing through a brain and soul of that peonight—the assassin firing through a window of the sitting room in which Mr. Catlin and his wife were sitting cring, from the brain, the soul of any brandy. If food does not digest, they together talking ever the topics of the other people, of a widely different peo- certainly have no need to take into just as we feel the foreignness of Ger- is wise to rebuild them by using, as Pat Doneland and Joe K. Morgan, confessed to robbing a registered confesse mine as he replied: "My friends are late, the hearts broken by intemper- law-abiding citizens. You see our temperance army stand like the brave "I am recording a matter of personal The robbery took place on the 18th of touch the Southern heart, they do not and the idea that they aid in digestion awake in the Southern soul that an- is equally false.

Terms of Advertising.

One square of eight lines, $1.50 for the One Column 1 year. Quarter 4 One Half Special rates given on application.

swering thrill as if a sister spirit had touched its tenderest chords. No matter how fine the sentiment, how splendid the diction, how true the pathos of foreign works, they do not go to A reduction of the great forces in the very center of our hearts, they do Thessalv to a peace footing has been not awake that responsive emotion, that even humbler productions of our own people would arouse.

This is especially and strongly true since the South's subjugation by the North. A common suffering, a common humiliation, a common wrong, A Dublin dispatch says: The mag- has knit our people together and strates of this county approve the made of Southerners one people.

Only a Frenchman with the memories of the mad revolution which overthrew thrones and tyrants, is fired to patriotic ferver by the melanthe betrothal of Prince Leopold to cholly notes of the "Marsellaise." Only an Englishman with the memo-The French Minister of Fine Arts ries of England's many battles is roused to martial pride by "Britania Rules the Waves." Only a poor conquered Southerner, with memories of all the South has suffered, memories of The return of winter brings increas- her brave four years fight for freedom, ed activity in the distribution of sedi- is melted to tears by the sound of "Dixie." To Northern, to European ears, "Dixie" is only the commonest piece of music, the most ordinary play of notes-the cultivated ear might first Mexican Emperor, has left Wash- scorn it, to the Southerner it possesses ngton with his mother to reside in the mournfulest beauty-strange and magic power. What a world of memories it evokes! What legions of long buried hopes-pale phantoms of the civil war!-rises up from the dead past, and stalk before the Suir, county of Tipperary, branch of Southern vision. I was in Washingthe Land League, has been arrested ton city hotel once when some street musicians struck up "Dixie." The lady I was talking with burst into tears at the sound, and her husband, who had been a Southern soldier, turned away to hide the tears that Southerners think and Southerners feel. Genius is the child of thought space wherein to exercise its wings The Mississippian, published at Forty years ago Poe said that no Greenville, Miss., says Greenville has Southern writer ever received justice doubled its population every three at the hands of Northern critics. Northern critics' judgments are so ors, they cannot believe that anything A Vienna dispatch says: The cre- good can come out of Nazareth. This feel themselves mentally and morally be stuffed and tufted and draped on Prince of Germany, opened the Muse- cr will the South make herself reum of Art and Industry at Berlin. A spected by her conquerers until she until she ceases to depend on to the gasometer, cut off the gas, caus- bute to Northern magazines or papers, find no countenance or support at the and Southern sympathy. The South the genius of her own children .-

Speculation in Cotton. A writer of the October Nineteenth of Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt in Fifty- loyalty, a Montreal candidate for the Century draws the attention of the speculation in cotton by law. Cotton is bought and sold in the "future mar-The Cramberry Man in a Predicament, ison, Wis. They discovered 11 cents when actually very little over 6,000,000

The dealing in 80,000,000 bales of cotton implies the changing hands of nation and barred her out. The result joining Mr. Voorhees in demanding To stop speculation by law is impossible. To license a limited number of is making the government a partner

All admit the necessity of doing something to stop cotton and corn speculation, which is ruining the le-

A messenger from the United States Fish Commission arrived in Chatta-

There is no more fallacious idea convened. Secretary Hunt wants a entific investigation that alcohol can unanimous report, and it appears by not be digested, that it can not be ville Landing on the Yazoo river this that there was a division in the changed into blood, that it can not assimilate with any other substance taken into the stomach, that it floats about, being "waste matter" in the truest sense, and as it has also been white and colored people on or about The literature of a people is the em- proven that alcohol exists in all vinous his place. The dastardly deed was egation, the flowering of the and fermented liquors, it becomes a